Partnerships to promote sexual well-being

Come and learn about the importance of sexual wellbeing across the life course, and how good health and social care practice can support people with their sexual expression. During the day you will be able to collaborate with key partners, participate in some research and learn about the best ways of supporting sexual wellbeing.

Speakers to include:

Helen Stevens: Director Dorset Rape Crisis Centre: sexual trauma and sexual well-being

Martin Hedley: sexuality and autism

Professor Claire De Than: Faculty of Law, City University discussing sex and the law

Professor Lee Ann Fenge: sexuality in older age and LGBTQ

Dr Sally Lee: findings from recent research around disability and sexuality

Date: Monday 5th November 2018
Time: 9.30am welcome, 10am start. 4pm finish.
Venue: Citygate Centre, 138A Holdenhurst Rd, Bournemouth BH8 8AS

Book your tickets: https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/partnerships-to-promote-sexual-well-being-tickets-51240799611